

WEDDINGS AT COTHELSTONE
Lake

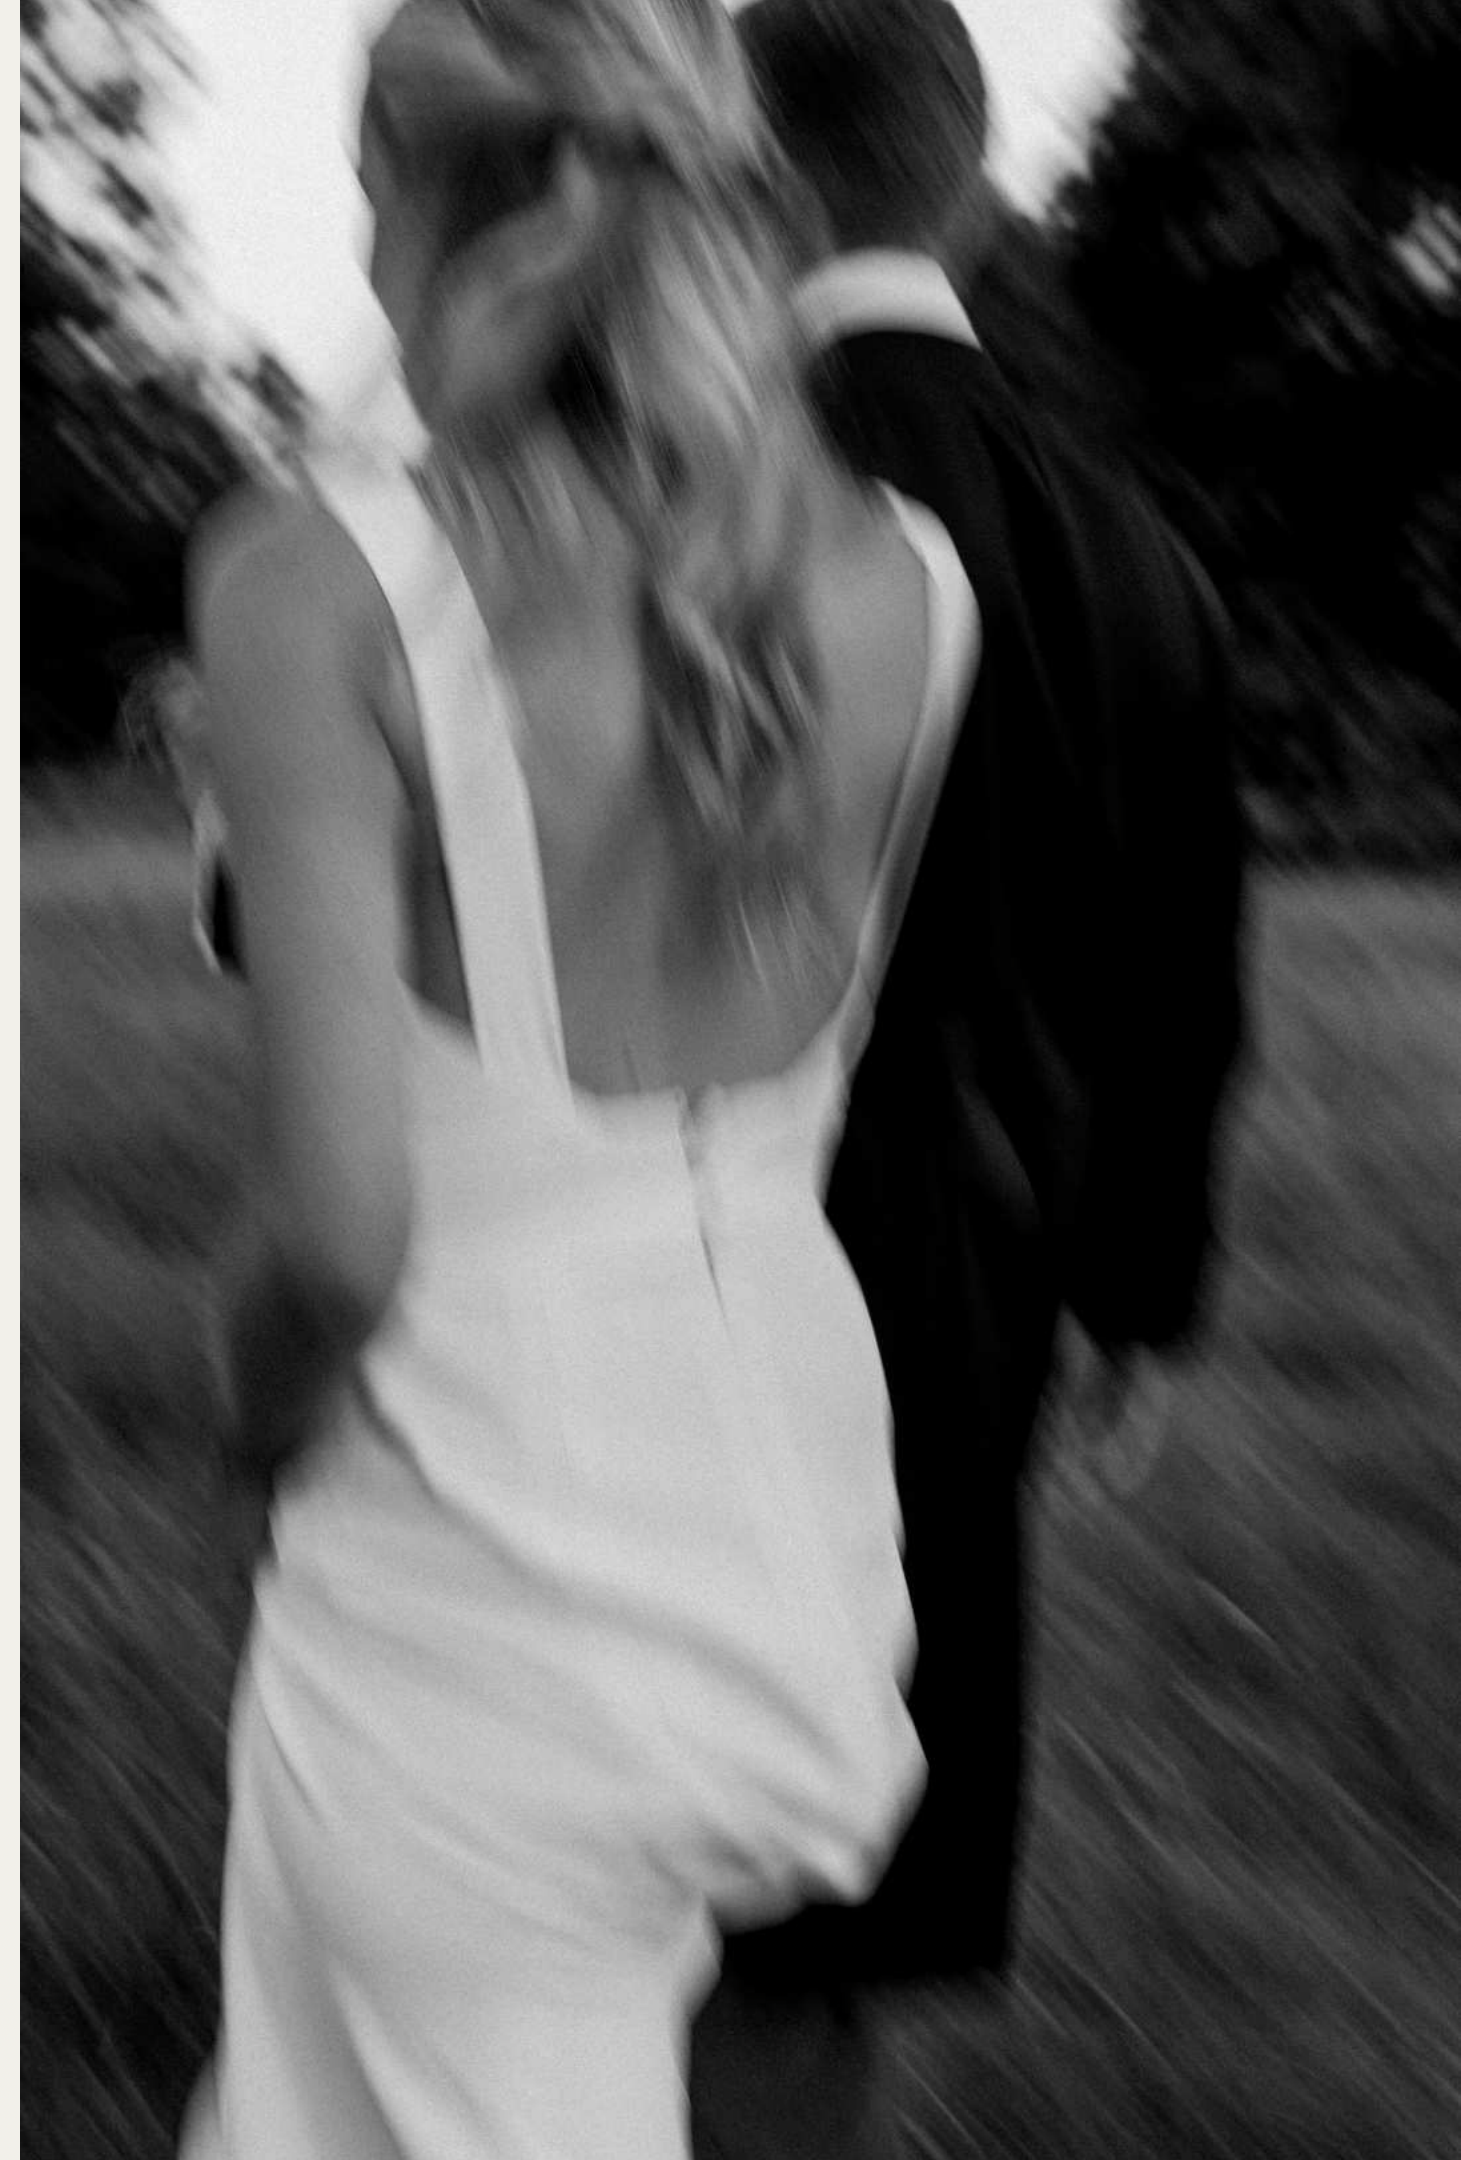

ABOUT

Tucked on the edge of Cothelstone Lake lies a whimsical wedding venue with panoramic views of the Quantock Hills.

With a sailcloth marquee seating up to 150 people, party as late and as loud as you like in our private secluded parkland.

Part of the family-run Cothelstone Estate, we will help you to craft a unique and quintessentially British wedding.

OFFERING

Set in over 40 acres of parkland, Cothelstone Lake includes everything you need for an effortless celebration, with a beautiful sailcloth marquee, elegant lighting, and all the essential furnishings provided.

Chose your own caterers and provide all of your own drinks (no corkage) - giving you complete freedom.

You'll have exclusive use of the venue from Friday morning to Sunday afternoon, allowing ample time to prepare, celebrate, and unwind in this magical, natural setting.

CEREMONY

Nestled in Cothelstone Park, the Church of St Thomas of Canterbury offers a truly special location for your ceremony and can seat up to 146 people. After the service, guests are welcome to amble through the parkland to the Lake, or it's a short drive to the venue.

If you're looking for a non-religious ceremony or blessing, Cothelstone Lake is a beautiful setting for a celebrant-led wedding. You can say your vows on the lake jetty, with views up to the Quantock Hills..

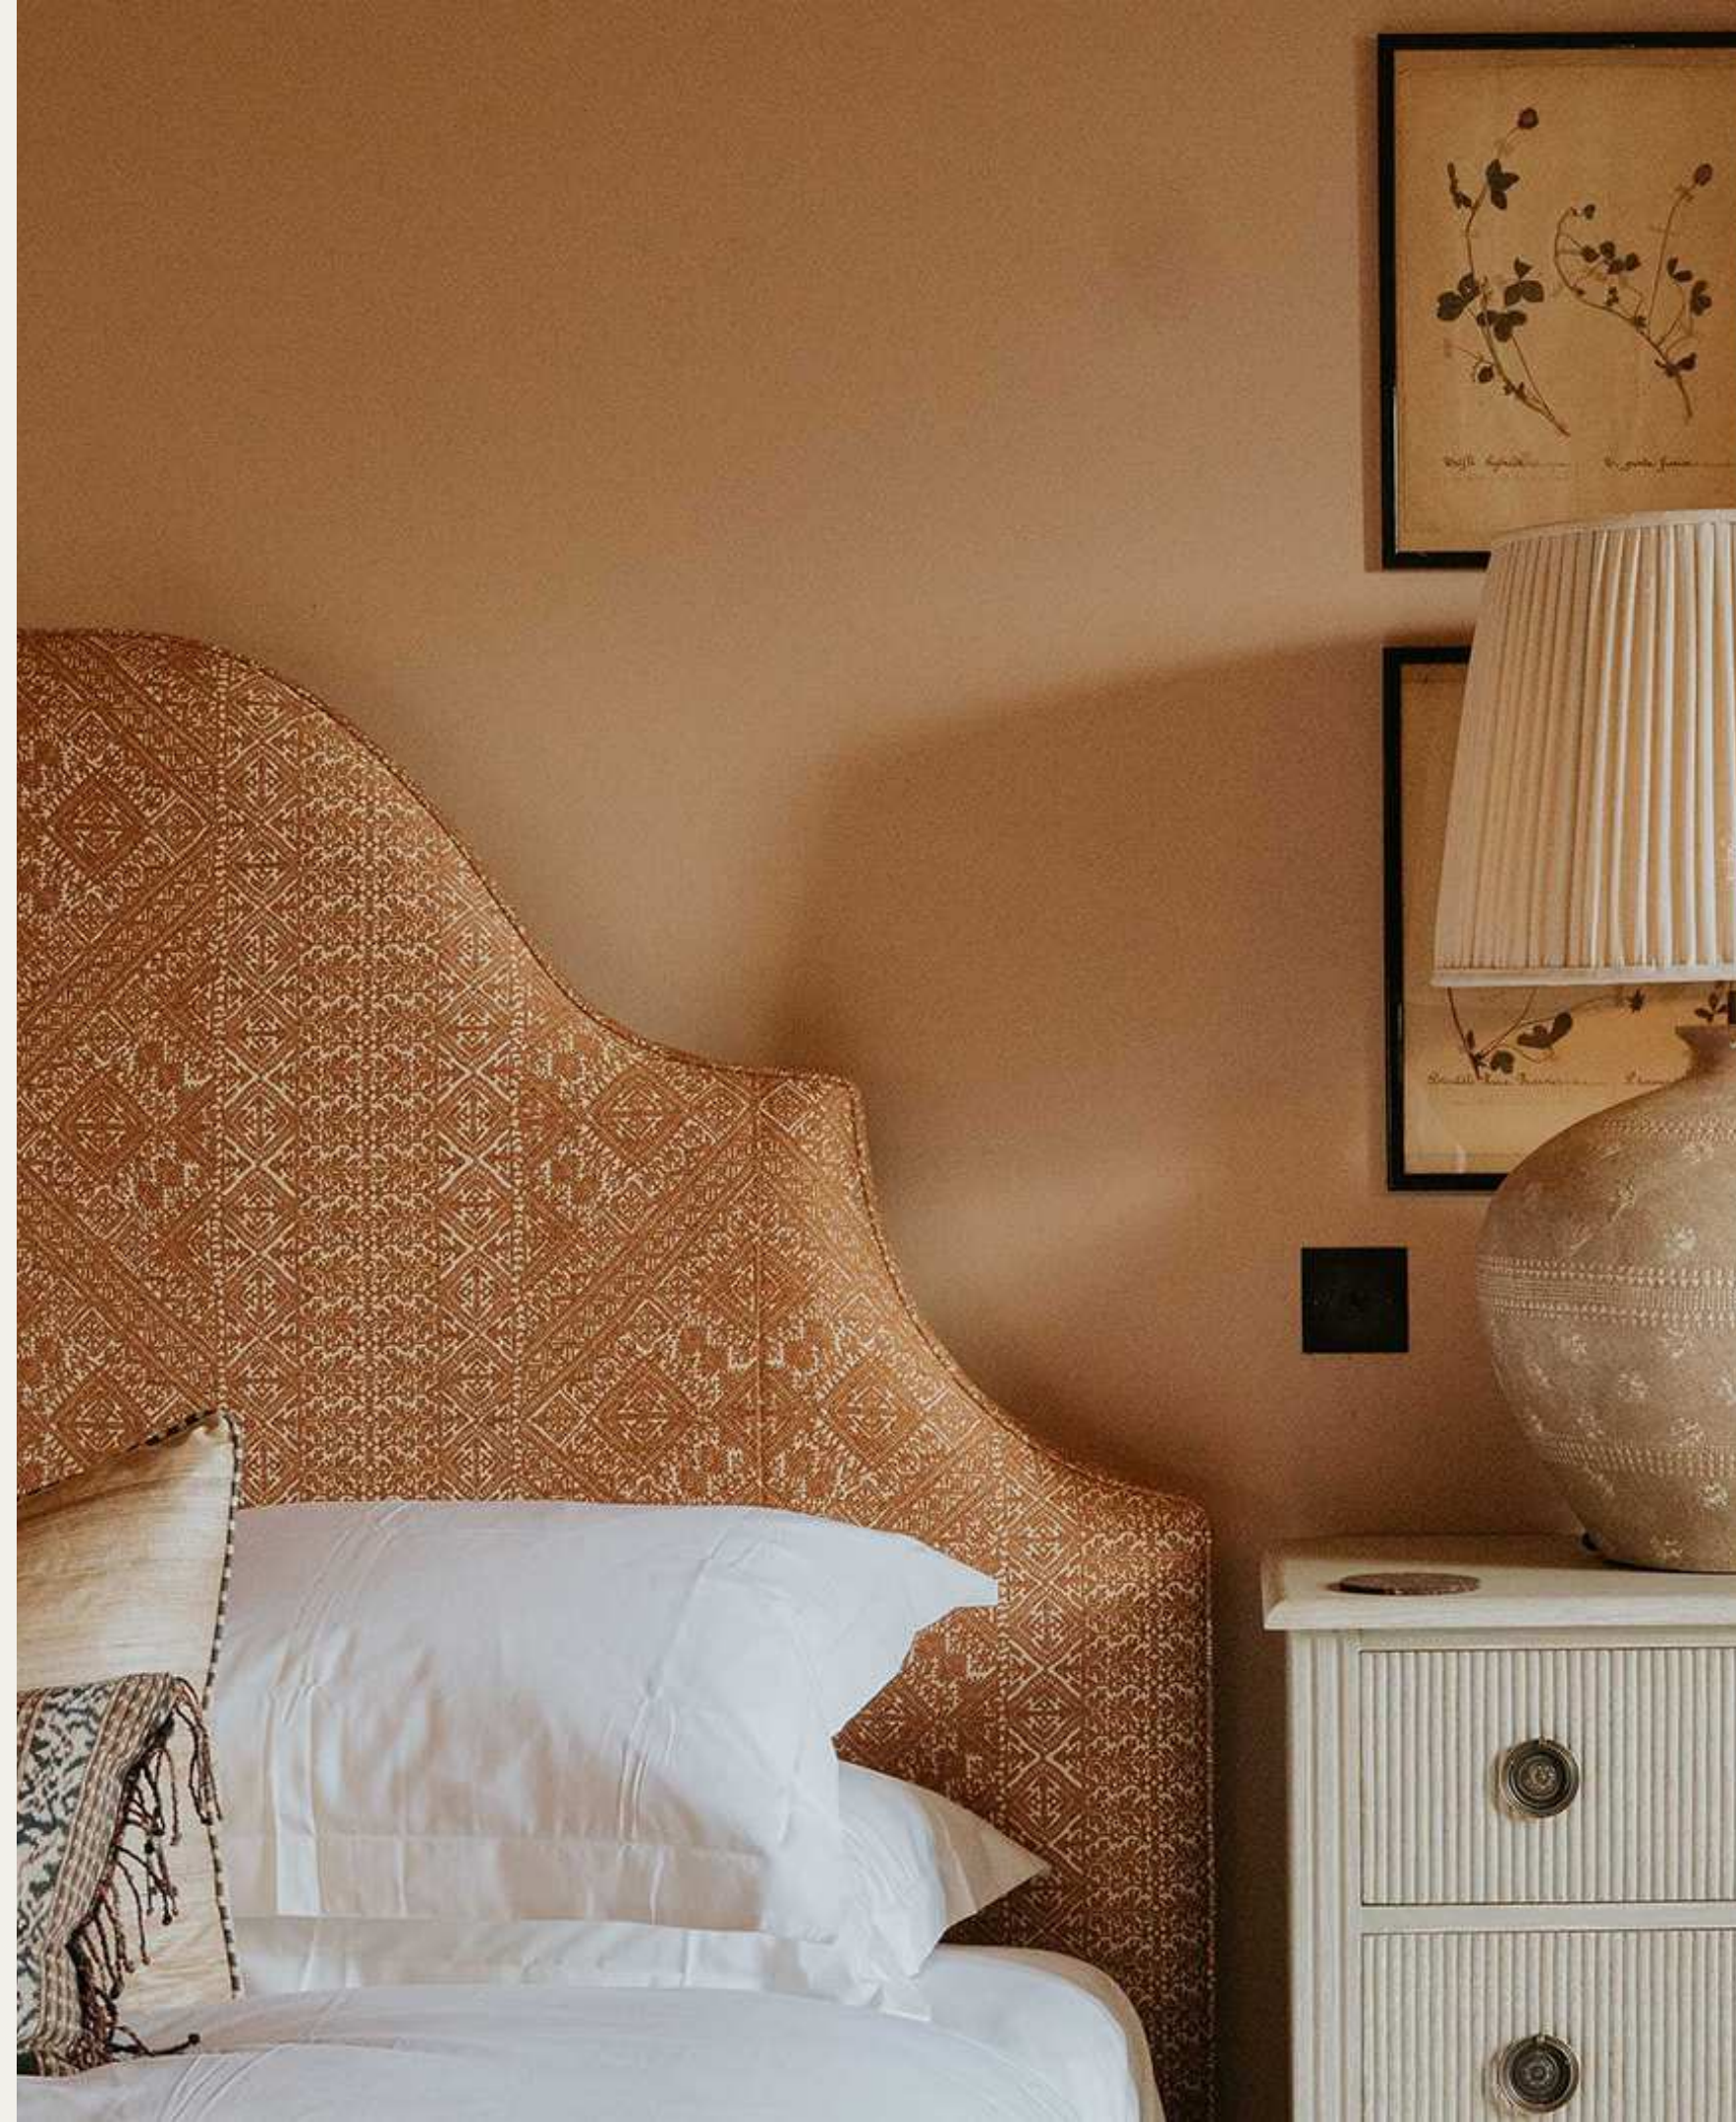

ACCOMODATION

Next to Cothelstone Church sits Cothelstone Manor, a beautiful 16th century house which sleeps fourteen + two people over seven bedrooms and is perfect for getting ready the morning of your wedding and the night after.

There is also the option to have a glamping village in the parkland, as well as lots of other local offerings.

VENUE PRICING – 2027

Available May–September

Venue Hire: £12,000 (inc VAT)

- Exclusive use of the venue
- Marquee, flooring, and dance floor
- Lighting
- Round bar
- Tables & chairs
- Catering tent
- Luxury portaloos
- Generator
- Waste removal

Two-nights accommodation in Cothelstone Manor: £4,000 (inc VAT)

Get in touch

Hermione Warmington

hello@cothelstonemanor.com

07870 111934